Lee Construction Management

LOCATION: Lake County, Indiana

Press boxes, pavilions and picnic shelters; game field lighting, concession stands and restrooms -- when it comes to park structures, we're known for our detailed, creative approach. We're sensitive to the unique challenges institutional and municipal projects present (i.e. additional paperwork and bidding requirements, higher community and political profiles, etc.) and our extraordinary success rate with these endeavors speaks for itself. From perfectly matching the stones on an existing historical edifice to building and installing a boardwalk without damaging protected wetlands, no structural job is too taxing for Lee Construction Management.
